

It ain't over 'til . . .

It ain't over 'til it's over . . . and until it's over, we still have some things to do !! But why do it alone? So, let's get together and watch the election returns and be together to celebrate our victories . . . and be together to share our defeats. There may be some of each this evening. So, why be alone? Come on over to Lisa Petrie's at 111 Main Street, New Ipswich at 7:00 pm tonight (November 6). We'll have some wine and some cheese and some crackers and some dip and some coffee and some fixin's. Bring some munchies and a beverage. Bring a friend !! See you there !!
